TECHNOLOGY

Technology has the potential to improve the lives of older adults by increasing their safety, security and independence in daily life. Aging Summit 2010 will highlight options about how technology can contribute to healthy aging.

The biennial Aging Summits were initiated by County Supervisors Dianne Jacob and Pam Slater-Price as a way for our community to discuss issues that are important to older adults, baby boomers and others.

Topics for this year's Aging Summit:

Don't Be Timid About Technology

Use Technology to Keep You Connected

Beneficial Technology for HealthCare & Caregivers

So Many Gadgets: Tips & Tricks
