DANIEL DREDLA

Dan Dredla is the Director of Business Development and Administrative Services at Sharp Chula Vista Medical Center. He has 18 years of experience in the hospital field, and holds a Master's Degree in Healthcare Administration. His responsibilities at the hospital include day-to-day operations, administrative oversight of various ancillary services, building or improving product lines, and strategic planning.

JOSE BROSZ

Jose Brosz, Principal at Otay Ranch High School, Chula Vista, has been rated a "Great Principal," by the website, Great Schools. A great principal creates and maintains a culture of achievement and support throughout the school, while establishing high expectations for academics and behavior. He attracts, develops and supports quality teachers; has courage, stamina and holds himself accountable. He is accessible to parents, members of the school community and responds to their concerns. Jose Brosz has been a principal for seven years, assistant principal for six, and a high school teacher for five. After graduating from SDSU he earned his M.Ed. at Point Loma University.

STEPHEN C. PADILLA

Stephen Padilla was elected the 38th mayor of Chula Vista on Nov. 5, 2002. Earlier, he served two consecutive terms on the City Council. He was a member of the Board of Ethics, the Safety Commission and the Community Task Force. A lifelong San Diego resident and a single father, Mayor Padilla graduated from Bonita Vista High School, Southwestern College (A.A.) and National University (B.A. in Public Administration). He began his career in public service as a detective with the Coronado Police Dept. investigating domestic violence and child abuse cases.

DR. DANIEL SHERMAN

Dr. Daniel Sherman received undergraduate degrees in Psychology and Philosophy from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. He received his Masters and Doctoral degrees in Clinical Psychology from the University of Missouri-Columbia where he received an NIMH Fellowship and published in the area of childhood and adolescent depression. He was chief intern during his pre-doctoral internship at a Veterans' Administration Medical Center affiliated with UCLA School of Medicine. He is a licensed clinical psychologist in the State of California with broad experience in forensic psychology.

ENRIQUE MORONES

Long time internationally acclaimed Human Rights activist, Enrique Morones was born in San Diego to Mexican parents. They instilled in him a deep love for Mexico, a passion for social justice, and a deep spiritual faith. His most recent creation was the National March for Migrants as he led thousands from San Diego to Washington D.C. He is recognized as one of the 100 most influential Latinos in the USA and has been featured on NBC, CNN, ABC, CBS, BBC, HBO and other newscasts and talk shows.
